

6. He loves you enough to discipline you.

You might have a hard time with this, especially if you were disciplined by your own father out of his anger, rather than his love. God's Word says in Proverbs 3:11-12: "do not despise the Lord's discipline, and do not resent his rebuke, because the Lord disciplines those he loves, as a father the son he delights in."

7. His timing is perfect.

God doesn't make mistakes. Nor does He forget. And unlike human fathers, His timing is always perfect. When He withholds something from you, it's not necessarily because He's angry or punishing you, or just not listening to the concerns on your heart. Scripture tells us in Psalm 84:11, "No good thing does He withhold from those who walk uprightly."

8. He gives wisdom generously.

Did you have a father who held back in any way? Who only gave you advice when you applied it the last time he doled it out? Or who only gave you the bare minimum of what you needed – or not even that – to teach you a lesson or because he didn't trust you with the gift? Your Heavenly Father is not like that.

9. He lets you make your own choices.

While God has expectations of you, like your earthly father might have, He doesn't disown you or back out of your life when you select a different path. A wise, loving, and patient Father, He waits. And He "causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose" (Romans 8:28). That means when you come back to His best plan for your life, you find that it's something you really wanted, too, and you find He is able to use those mistakes for good in your life from that point on.

10. He knows you intimately.

It is one of the deepest needs of the human race. To be intimately known. Yet sometimes we hide who we really are out of fear of rejection or that someone may lose interest in us when they discover what we are really like, warts and all. Scripture says your Heavenly Father knows you intimately.

TEN REASONS GOD IS A GOOD, GOOD FATHER

Cindi McMenamin

1. His patience and kindness never runs out.

If you've ever felt you used up whatever patience or kindness your dad once had, you don't have to worry about over-extending your Heavenly Father. Psalm 103:17 says, "from everlasting to everlasting the Lord's love is with those who fear him, and his righteousness with their children's children." And Psalm 106:1 says, "for he is good; his love endures forever."

2. He is always approachable.

God never has a bad day, is never in a sour mood, and is never too busy or distracted for His child. When you are in relationship with His Son, Christ Jesus, you have complete access to your Heavenly Father's ear, His heart, His focused attention. Hebrews 4:16 tells us we can "draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need."

3. You will never have to earn his love.

You may have felt that you had to earn your father's love and respect by accomplishing great things to make him proud of you. God is not a father like that. Romans 5:8 tells us that "God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

4. You will never blow it enough to lose his love.

Since there was nothing you could do to earn your Heavenly Father's love, there is nothing you can do to lose it. Romans 8:38-39 tells us, "Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

5. He has your very best in mind.

It's natural for humans to be selfish and consider themselves before anyone else. So, if you had a dad who was unselfish and willing to sacrifice his own comfort for yours, you had a gift – a glimpse of what Your Heavenly Father is like. Scripture tells us, "He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?" (Romans 8:32).

WE NEED YOU

We have a serious need for volunteers to help with Wednesday Night suppers. If there are not enough volunteers we may not be able to continue this ministry. Please see DK if you can help.

Christmas in July

Please take an angel from the tree in the vestibule and shop for the item written on it. Bring it back and leave in the tub beside the tree.

If you'd like someone else to do the shopping for you, pick an angel, put it and your money in an envelope and drop in the offering plate. (Be sure to put your name on the envelope.)
